

English

- Students will be writing: A narrative adventure story as a police officer in 1950's Britain
- A newspaper report on a local factory strike.
- Reading Reconsidered Novel – Journey To The River Sea

Computing

- External devices – coding external chips to perform a set of actions

Maths

- Shape: Understand and use degrees, classify angles and estimate angles
- Angles around a point and on a straight line
- Position and direction: Read and plot coordinates

Art

Our city: Mind Map, textures/patterns from the local area. Peter Mitchell-Analysis including drawing sections of Peter Mitchell's work. Drawing Bradford buildings using a selection of media.

Year 5

Summer Term 1

Science

Living things and their habitats: Life process of asexual and sexual reproduction in plants; compare life cycle of plants in the local environment with other plants around the world.

Humanities

History – Changing Britain: Civil rights

Discrimination, British Values, laws.

Focus on The Bristol Bus Boycott, Grunwick Factory Strike and Section 28.

Music

- Vocals – looking at how songs are used to reflect feelings and different views.
- Curriculum – Music for moving image – analyzing film scores, composing and writing a graphic score.

RE

Hinduism – Festivals, places of worship and traditions.